Students, Parents and Faculty-

Arlingtonian has reported on local news for over 70 years. Each year, we strive to write interesting, informative stories to which the student body can relate. For the upcoming school year, we will continue to include articles that keep students and parents informed on school and community topics.

Arlingtonian is a completely student-run newsmagazine and wins both regional and national awards. All funds come from subscription and ad sales, and each issue costs around $2,000 to print. This year, we hope to raise enough money to produce larger issues with full color and more indepth stories, so you are more informed about your community.

Also, Arlingtonian is an open-forum newsmagazine, so we want to hear your feedback. Letters to the Editor are always appreciated and can be e-mailed to arlingtonians@yahoo.com; they will be printed in the following issue or on our website.

Subscribe to Arlingtonian to receive NINE ISSUES FOR $15. Subscription forms and payment can be dropped off in our box in the attendance office, brought in on textbook pick-up days, or mailed to the address below. This is your chance to become more involved in the community, receive an award-winning newsmagazine and support a UAHS tradition.
